

Getting to Bonville Golf Resort

Bonville Golf Resort is nestled at the foot of the Great Dividing Range, on the beautiful Coffs Coast in New South Wales, Australia.

Just off the Pacific Highway, 10mins south of Coffs Harbour, Bonville Golf Resort is approximately 6 hours drive North of Sydney & approximately 5 hours south of Brisbane. Travelling by air the Coffs Coast is only 50minutes away from Sydney & Brisbane & 1hr 45min from Melbourne.

Driving South - Take the Bonville/Toormina/Sawtell exit off the Pacific Highway approximately 8km south of the Coffs Harbour CBD. Follow the green signs to Bonville which will direct you onto the Lyons road overpass (driving over the new Pacific Highway, marked as a blue line above) along Pine Creek Way (the old Pacific Highway marked with a thick green line above). Once on Pine Creek Way continue south approximately 1.5 km then turn right onto North Bonville Road. Once on North Bonville Road take your 1st right and you have arrived.
