

Bonville's Flooded Gums Restaurant announced as the North Coast's Best

The Flooded Gums Restaurant of Bonville Golf Resort has won the Outstanding Restaurant Award at the recent North Coast Local Business Awards. The award comes after being awarded 1 Goblet in the Fine Wine Partners Wine List of the Year Awards and a debut listing in the 2009 Sydney Morning Herald Good Food Guide.

Bonville's General Manager, Brad Daymond explains "this is a fantastic addition to the food and beverage accolades received this year for The Flooded Gums Restaurant and the entire Bonville team. Being named as 'The North Coast's Best' in any category is a fantastic achievement, but especially in the restaurant category due to the extremely high standard of North Coast Restaurants".

The Awards highlight the North Coasts best form Tourism Services to Restaurants with the public nominating their favourite or the best businesses online or through coupons printed in various local papers on the North Coast before a judging panel reviews submissions from the nominations to determine the finalists & ultimately the Coast's Best.

The Flooded Gums Restaurant is located at Bonville Golf Resort, North Bonville Road (10 mins south of the Coffs Hbr CBD) and is open every night of the year. Booking and enquires can be made by calling (02) 6653 4002.

Left to right: Bonville's consulting chef George Francisco, the clubhouse which houses the Flooded Gums Restaurant at night, caramelised pineapple & passionfruit brulee.