

Start your ... golf cart

NO offence to the boys who played a round at Bonville Golf Resort yesterday but as golfers they make excellent WRC drivers and co-drivers.

Khalid Al Qassimi just drove the golf cart around the course voted the Australian mainland's most beautiful course but what he saw from the four "golfers" he was following would've entertained him

Al Qassimi's co-driver Michael Orr was joined by fellow Ford Abu Dhabi driver Jari-Matti Latvala, his co-driver Mikka Anttila and Scott Martin who is the co-driver for Matthew Wilson.

Yesterday was a chance to unwind and relax for the international rallying stars before the serious business starts today.

For the next two days, the crews will be making two slow passes over each gravel stage to work on and finalise their pace notes before the first Super Special Stage is held at Jetty Foreshores on Thursday night.

TEED OFF: WRC driver Khalid Al Qassimi is having some trouble behind the wheel of his golf cart at Bonville Golf Resort yesterday thanks to the hijinx of Mikka Anttila, Jari-Matti Latvala, Scott Martin and Michael Orr.

PHOTO: ROB WRIGHT